CosmoShop

A helping hand

CosmoShop is based not far from Munich and specialises in setting up online shopping systems. Since its early beginnings, CosmoShop has brought into being many online department stores for companies specialising in baby products. As a full-size agency, its range of services includes the setting up of B2B or B2C shopping systems, multi/omni-channel strategies and online marketing measures as well as valuable consultation in the areas of shop design, Click&Collect and SEO. CosmoShop has developed a whole series of well-established German online stores such as baby-markt.de, baby-plus.de, babypроfi.de and 123Babyland.de.
